

Louisiana Department of Public Safety & Corrections
Office of State Police
Incident Report

John Bel Edwards
Governor

Kevin W. Reeves, Colonel
Superintendent

CASE HISTORY

Case Number: 19-12407
Case Date: October 29, 2019
Offense: Sexual offenses affecting minors
Offense Date: Unknown
Offense Time: Unknown
Investigation Officer: Investigator William Sellers

COMPLAINANT

Name: Ofc. [REDACTED]
Birth Date: [REDACTED]
Birth Country: United States
Birth State: Louisiana
Nationality: United States
Gender: Male
Race: White
Hair Color: Bald
Eye Color: Blue
Height: 6'1
Weight: 200 lbs
Address: [REDACTED]
Contact List: 1. [REDACTED] Cell Phone
ID List: 1. DL Number [REDACTED] Louisiana

WITNESS

Name: [REDACTED]
Birth Date: [REDACTED]
Birth Country: United States
Birth State: Louisiana
Nationality: United States
Gender: Female
Race: White
Hair Color: Brown
Height: 5'0
Weight: 115 lbs

Case Number:	19-12407	Offense:	Sexual offenses affecting minors
Case Date:	October 29, 2019	Offense Date:	Unknown
Investigation Officer:	Investigator William Sellers	Offense Time:	Unknown

Address: [REDACTED]

Contact List: 1. [REDACTED] Cell Phone

ID List: 1. DL Number [REDACTED] Louisiana

INITIAL COMPLAINT

19-12407

On October 24, 2019, I, Inv. Bill Sellers, Louisiana State Police Special Victims Unit – Baton Rouge, was asked by LSP Command Staff to contact [REDACTED] (W/M [REDACTED]) in regards to a complaint he allegedly made in 2013 involving Dennis Perkins(W/M [REDACTED]) and [REDACTED] juvenile stepdaughter, which allegedly occurred in Livingston Parish.

Ofc. [REDACTED] was interviewed on October 24, 2019 by LSP SVU. According to [REDACTED], no crime was committed by Perkins against his stepdaughter in 2013. Ofc. [REDACTED] met directly with Sheriff Jason Ard, Sheriff of Livingston Parish, and brought the matter to his attention in lieu of making a formal complaint. The juvenile involved did not wish to be interviewed regarding this matter. As a result, the investigation will be closed.

NARRATIVE

19-12407

On October 24, 2019, I, Inv. Bill Sellers, Louisiana State Police Special Victims Unit – Baton Rouge, was asked by LSP Command Staff to contact [REDACTED] (W/M [REDACTED]) in regards to a complaint he allegedly made in 2013 involving Dennis Perkins(W/M [REDACTED]) and [REDACTED] juvenile stepdaughter.

Later that date, I spoke with [REDACTED], who is an officer with Baton Rouge Police Department. The interview took place at LSP Headquarters. Ofc. [REDACTED] told me that in 2013, his stepdaughter (who was [REDACTED] years old at the time) and Perkins' [REDACTED] were friends, and would sleep over at each other's residences. One night, Perkins' wife at the time, [REDACTED] (W/F [REDACTED]), awoke to find Dennis Perkins lying in bed with the girls watching a movie. She called [REDACTED] wife, [REDACTED] (W/F [REDACTED]) and advised her of the situation. The stepdaughter never went back to Perkins' residence. No crime was committed. Ofc. [REDACTED] did not know the specific date this occurred.

The family decided to send the juvenile to counseling out of caution. According to Ofc. [REDACTED], the counselor told him and his wife that, from what the juvenile disclosed in the sessions, that Dennis Perkins had engaged in grooming behavior with her, but nothing hands-on had occurred. The counselor also told [REDACTED] that he believed Perkins had done this before and would do it again. Ofc. [REDACTED] said he went directly to Sheriff Jason

Case Number:	19-12407	Offense:	Sexual offenses affecting minors
Case Date:	October 29, 2019	Offense Date:	Unknown
Investigation Officer:	Investigator William Sellers	Offense Time:	Unknown

Ard and told him what happened, and asked that Perkins have no further contact with him or his family. Ofc. [REDACTED] did not make any formal complaint with the Livingston Parish Sheriff's Office, or any other agency.

Shortly thereafter, [REDACTED] wife saw Dennis Perkins parked at a gas station across the street from their residence, and Perkins "slow rolled" by her vehicle, which was occupied by her and the daughter, giving them a menacing look. Ofc. [REDACTED] then went to his Chief and asked him to contact Sheriff Ard in an attempt to stop this behavior. According to Ofc. [REDACTED], it never occurred again.

No records exist in IRS from 2013 about this matter. The juvenile now lives with her mother in [REDACTED]. The [REDACTED] are now divorced. I spoke with Ms. [REDACTED] by telephone, and she corroborated Ofc. [REDACTED] information. She also advised the juvenile is doing well and does not wish to be interviewed regarding this incident.

As no crime was committed and the juvenile does not wish to be interviewed, this investigation will be closed.

INVESTIGATION OFFICER

Investigator William Sellers

INVESTIGATION SUPERVISOR

Sgt. Jon Tircuit