

 190

MD

Melinda >

Tue, Jul 6, 2:39 PM

Does the Governor have any comment on the Black Caucus calling for a DOJ investigation into State Police practices?

Yeah I just emailed it to you.

Thanks.

Mon, Jul 12, 8:36 AM

Good morning, wanted to check in on EWE's death. Will the Governor have a statement? And will y'all have info about the events planned at the Capitol?

Yes statement should be going out momentarily.

I don't have info on what's

iMessage

 190

TB

Tyler >

Wed, Jun 9, 2:14 PM

What can you tell me about Mike Noel?

He informed the Governor this morning that he will be stepping down, effective tomorrow. The Governor is appreciative of his service at the Gaming Control Board and will work to find a suitable replacement for Mr. Noel.

Thanks. Can you confirm that they met yesterday?

Wed, Jun 9, 4:14 PM

Was Noel's resignation related to Ronald Greene?

I don't believe they met yesterday. If I find out I will let

iMessage

 190

TB

Tyler >

Thanks. Can you confirm that they met yesterday?

Wed, Jun 9, 4:14 PM

Was Noel's resignation related to Ronald Greene?

I don't believe they met yesterday. If I find out I will let you know.

Thanks. And please see the second question

You'd need to speak with him.

Did the Governor or any senior member of his staff discuss with Noel that he should step down because of questions related to Greene?

iMessage

Tyler >

Did the Governor or any senior member of his staff discuss with Noel that he should step down because of questions related to Greene?

I'm not going to speculate about conversations I wasn't a part of. The Governor accepted his resignation and is grateful for his service to the state.

I'm not asking you to speculate. You typically find out from others. So that's what I'm asking.

I don't have any insights for you on that.

Sat, Jul 17, 9:38 AM

I'm in a holding pattern

iMessage

 188

MD

Melinda >

Wed, May 19, 4:02 PM

Does the governor have any comment on the release of the Ronald Greene body cam video? Will he order a wider release of the video?

Wed, May 19, 6:46 PM

The Governor has seen the video previously and he found it to be disturbing. Last fall, the Governor met with the Greene family and, at the Governor's request, the Louisiana State Police and the District Attorney arranged for the video to be seen by Mr. Greene's family and their lawyers, along with several legislators.

After discussion with the United States Attorney and the District Attorney, the Louisiana

iMessage

Melinda >

The Governor has seen the video previously and he found it to be disturbing. Last fall, the Governor met with the Greene family and, at the Governor's request, the Louisiana State Police and the District Attorney arranged for the video to be seen by Mr. Greene's family and their lawyers, along with several legislators.

After discussion with the United States Attorney and the District Attorney, the Louisiana State Police has honored each of their requests to not release the video to the public during their ongoing investigations and will continue to do so until approved by the United States Attorney and the District Attorney at the conclusion of

iMessage

 188

MD

Melinda >

In Houma

Thanks.

Wed, Oct 13, 10:39 AM

Any word on that interview request? What did the governor say?

He is considering it. For what it's worth, Lamar said he thought it was a good idea.

That's helpful. Thanks for the update.

Mon, Oct 18, 5:21 PM

Are you planning a response to Rep. Magee's letter, or is it all being handled through GOHSEP?

iMessage

 188

Wes >

Tue, Jul 6, 1:23 PM

Christina, does the governor have any comment on the LLBC letter?

Tue, Jul 6, 2:38 PM

Yep — can source to me

The Governor enjoys a strong working relationship with members of the Louisiana Legislative Black Caucus and was aware of their planned request in advance. He also believes that they have reasonable concerns that need to be addressed. We all agree that all law enforcement officers, including Louisiana State Police troopers, should act professionally, respectfully and in accordance with their

iMessage

Wes >

race or background. If officers violate this oath and the public's trust, they should be held responsible and face the appropriate consequences for their action or inaction. For our officers, we believe this important work can be accomplished with strong leadership at the Louisiana State Police.

As the Governor has said, he is fully supportive of Louisiana State Police Col. Lamar Davis, who became the head of LSP last October. His charge to Col. Davis was not just to lead the agency, but also to transform it, and that monumental work has already started through internal reviews and expanded training.

iMessage

 188

Wes >

public's trust, they should be held responsible and face the appropriate consequences for their action or inaction. For our officers, we believe this important work can be accomplished with strong leadership at the Louisiana State Police.

As the Governor has said, he is fully supportive of Louisiana State Police Col. Lamar Davis, who became the head of LSP last October. His charge to Col. Davis was not just to lead the agency, but also to transform it, and that monumental work has already started through internal reviews and expanded training.

Thanks

iMessage

